In tough economic times it's more important than ever to adopt best business practices for your organization. If you don't, it may prove fatal. This session will provide you with numerous tips and observations on how best to manage your organization from a business lawyer who has been working with businesses large and small, including not-for-profits, in these challenging times. Subjects will include virtually every aspect of business operation and many will have nothing to do with law.

Greg Snell is the founder and managing shareholder of Snell Legal - The Business Lawyers, with offices in Daytona Beach, Ormond Beach, Orlando and Lake Mary. In addition to his roughly 25 years of experience as an attorney, Mr. Snell has served, and continues to serve on the board of directors of many not-for-profit organizations. Additional biographical information on Mr. Snell can be found at www.snelllegal.com.

Advanced Registration is Required by Wednesday, August 19, 2009.
