*Fundraising For Nonprofits:
The Foundation Center*

This session will cover:

- » Using The Foundation's online database to connect to grantmakers/funding opportunities
- » Getting the most out of available online resources - research tools, reports, and other valuable information
- » Additional resources available through The Foundation Center

As the coordinator of The Foundation Center Cooperating Collection at the Alachua County Library District Headquarters, Cindy is responsible for expanding and promoting the collection, providing individual and group training, producing marketing materials and attending training herself at Foundation meetings and webinars.

Having worked for the Library District for over 26 years, Cindy is also responsible for the Reference Business collection, New Readers for Adults, and supporting the (very busy) reference desk. She is also a member of the Personnel Recruitment Committee for the Florida Library Association and works on a statewide Ask-A-Librarian Quality Assurance Workgroup.

Advanced Registration Requested No Later Than Monday, July 19, 2010.
