An Economic Update: A Look Ahead

Originally from Tifton, Ga., Dixon started his career in Charlotte, N.C., at Nations Bank, and was transferred to Fort Lauderdale to work with companies with assets of $25 million and up, also known as “middle market” companies. He left in 1999 to help start Citizens National Bank of Southwest Florida, now called Bank of Florida, where he was Vice President of commercial lending. In 2003, Dixon left Florida to return to his home state. Building on his knowledge of the banking industry, Dixon is poised to address this timely topic.
