Learn to use a great tool in assessing the styles of board members and staff! This interactive workshop will enable participants to articulate at a higher level why they work the way they do, as well as identify skills and strengths they would like to enhance.

By participating in this course, you will:

- Develop a deeper sense of self-awareness about your leadership style
- Develop a more balanced approach to your work style seeking out areas of growth or change
- Develop an understanding of how your work style affects team functioning
- Build skills in all four directions to enhance personal and team performance.

Mary Welch has worked in non-profit management for over 30 years. She is currently the director of U.S. field operations for Habitat for Humanity International. Through the years she has held various positions in the nonprofit arena, including: Coordinator for Laubach Literacy, West Volusia Director for the Council on Aging for the Retired Senior Volunteer Program and Foster Grandparents Program, consultant for Points of Light Foundation for Community Based Organizations, and Director of the Community Resource Division at United Way here in Volusia County.
